SEW MUCH LOVE

There are many ways to support our families and associates at Nemours during this crisis. To help address our need for masks and face shields, some very generous helpers put their crafting and sewing abilities into motion.

Arianna, pictured left, and several other young ladies hand-made masks at the Love to Sew Studio. Justin, pictured right, from Charter School is also making face shields. We still have a long road ahead and appreciate the continued support to help Nemours in such a meaningful way.

SUPPORT FOR FAMILIES

The impact of COVID-19 on Nemours and the patients and families we serve, has been profound. While hospital operations are stable and quality medical care remains available to children and families throughout the Delaware Valley, the ancillary needs of our most vulnerable families, that are heavily dependent upon philanthropic donations and fundraising, are in jeopardy.

We are truly grateful for donors like the Alana Rose Foundation and the William E. Proudford Sickle Cell Fund for being among the first to respond to this ongoing need in such a generous way.

Donations made to the Nemours Emergency Family Relief Fund will help provide supportive services and needs like lodging, food, and basic accommodations to our most vulnerable families during this crisis.

For more information about how to support the Patient and Family Emergency Fund email us at Giving@Nemours.org.

THE POWER OF PPE

Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) is critical to children's hospitals like Nemours. PPE protects our front line associates, children, and families. We need your help to keep everyone at Nemours safe and minimize the spread of this virus.

During such an unprecedented time, we are so grateful for our community partners who have delivered donations of critical supplies. In the last few weeks, these generous PPE donors include: Ashland Research Center, Blackrock, Colonial School District, Cooper-Booth Wholesale Company, Girl Scouts of Chesapeake Bay, Golf Sheep Clothing, JP Morgan Chase, Ladybug Quilt Guild, Lilly Pulitzer, Longwood Gardens, Philadelphia Phillies, the Plain Community, Plume and Thread, St. Anthony's School, Sunski, Ticks Shoes, The Interior Alternative, Toad Hollow Athletics, Urban Outfitters, WestPoint Home, and Women in Leadership Development and Empowerment (WILDE).

We greatly appreciate our communities' outpouring of support and willingness to help. Please visit our dedicated website to find a list of the items we are currently accepting.

FOOD FOR THE FRONTLINE

Thank you to our partners like Berkshire Hathaway Fox & Roach Realtors, Capano Inc., CocaCola, CVS, the Delaware Centurions, Docklands, Dunkin, Grotto Pizza, Meg Geisewite - Feeding Front Line Healthcare Givers, Saloon 151, Sherm's Catering, and TD Bank for donating food and beverages to our Nemours associates, who are working tirelessly on the front lines.

Pictured to the left is an extra special delivery from Grotto Pizza. The team at the donation site was so surprised when they opened the pizza boxes and there was a note from the Grotto's team. It truly made their day!

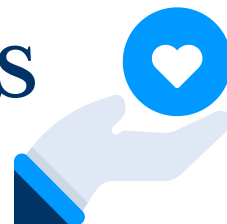

If you are interested in helping by donating food, please fill out the donation form on our dedicated website. A member of our team will be in touch with you on the next business day to coordinate your donation in accordance with our current visitation policies and safety guidelines.

Please note, to ensure the safety of our staff, we are only accepting donations from catering companies and professional eateries. Additionally, only pre-packaged, unopened food can be delivered (if not coming from a caterer or restaurant).
